

Greetings,

Are you seeking ordination and considering exploring ordination? Are you interested in increasing your Christian leadership potential and capacity? Are you a current church leader or are you looking to serve in a leadership position at church? Would you like to gain insight on motivating and training other leaders?

If your answer to any of these questions is yes; and you currently or have served in a leadership position you will want to strongly consider joining the Leadership and Communication course being offered fully online through Winebrenner Theological Seminary. This course, instructed by Dr. Bruce Coats, Academic Dean at Winebrenner Seminary will serve to engage you at both the academic and practical level. Dr. Coats many years of pastoral and academia experience combine to provide thoughtful and engaging dialogue designed to be immediately applicable within your ministry context. Using distance video technology, you will also have the opportunity to interact with students from various regions within the United States, all the while remaining at home and in your current ministry context.

Communication within the realm of leadership is one of the most important skills necessary for Christian leaders in today's world.

This course is intended for anyone in a leadership position within the church; lay, ordained, elder etc.

Course is available for only $200 at the non-credit level and some CGGC regions may provide financial assistance. If you are interested in taking this course for graduate level credit then regular tuition ($525/credit hour) applies. Further information is available by emailing Amy Kinney, Director of Enrollment Management at Winebrenner Seminary, or simply complete and return the attached forms via email to kinney@winebrenner.edu

May your ministry and days be blessed.
